ABOUT TRILLIUM HIGH SCHOOL

Trillium is a K-12 Public Charter School in North Portland, Oregon. Trillium students are actively involved learners in building personal knowledge of the world around them through action, experience, and reflection. Trillium's education philosophy centers on contextual teaching/learning and constructivism. We utilize a relationship-based model that focuses on problem solving, project-oriented, and collaborative learning. Students engage as active participants in their learning and develop their own meaning and knowledge in the process. Equity, social justice and community are at the foundation of our education model and are woven into our curricula.

Trillium Public Charter High School utilizes an education model that includes proficiency-based assessments, restorative justice discipline and teacher-student advisory leadership work. Please visit www.trilliumcharterschool.org to learn more about our school.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The Mindfulness/Movement teacher is part of a collaborative team dedicated to student success and the integrity of the academic process. Great teachers are at the heart of what we do, and are the key to our students' success. Our most successful teachers are mission driven, adaptable and have a collaborative team mindset. Our teachers are dynamic classroom leaders who combine strategic level thinking with excellent skills in organization and communication. Employment at Trillium Public Charter School requires creativity, critical thinking, intercultural competence, and emotional intelligence.
